

Code of Ethics

Excellence

Our members strive for excellence and perfection by giving quality service and personal attention to every customer – to treat all customers as we would a special guest in our home – to follow the “Golden Rule” in all our business practices.

Team Work

Our consultants are trained to work in harmony with the bride, her family, and all members of her wedding party. We believe that people are more productive when they are empowered to utilize and share their knowledge and skills in a spirit of harmony.

Honesty

Our consultants have been trained to be honest in every aspect of the transaction with her clients.

Integrity

NBS promotes integrity by encouraging our members to always do what is morally and ethically right.

Commitment

NBS members are committed to giving value for every dollar spent by the customer.

Sincerity

NBS members are trained to be sincere in all their dealings to present the bride with a quality service performed.